Perceptions of personal safety and experiences of harassment, Mid-west: 2 to 27 June 2024

Perceptions of safety and experiences of harassment, by personal characteristics, based on the Opinions and Lifestyle Survey (OPN).

- One in two women felt unsafe walking alone after dark in a quiet street near their home, compared to one in seven men.
- One in two women felt unsafe walking alone after dark in a busy public place, compared to one in five men.
- Four out of five women felt unsafe walking alone after dark in a park or other open space, compared to two out of five men.
- Two out of three women aged 16 to 34 years experienced one form of harassment in the previous 12 months; with 44% of women aged 16 to 34 years having experienced catcalls, whistles, unwanted sexual comments or jokes, and 29% having felt like they were being followed.
- Disabled people felt less safe walking alone in all settings than non-disabled people.

blow the whistle

when you blow the whistle:

- A loud screeching noise plays.
- 911 is called.
- University police dispatch is notified and nearby cameras are checked to send help quicker
- Texts are sent automatically to people in the immediate vicinity, using cell towers for location.

Feel unsafe walking home and there are no other options....

have a university dispatcher walk with you virtually and make sure you get home safe

Need an excuse to leave from an annoying conversation, put your number in and the amount of time you want a call in, and you will receive a call from an AI agent acting like your partner. If you are in immediate danger, please call 911
